

Dr. Michael May, CEO of Wisdom Natural Brands, USA will give presentation about his father "James May: Pioneer in Natural Health and Father of Stevia" during the Stevia Tasteful 2018 Convention which will be held in next June 4-5, 2018 at Steigenberger Hotel Berlin , Germany.

James May founded a global industry when he brought stevia from Paraguay to the United States in 1982. As part of his commitment to help people live a better quality of life through improved health by using the means nature provided, he broke down barriers to the use of natural stevia as sweetener and championed its growth worldwide.
